Paris, February 22th, 2023 - Since the invasion of Ukraine by Russia, Sciences Po has shown itself faithful to its tradition of commitment for peace and solidarity by opening its doors to students in exile and currently welcomes 32 Ukrainian students.

One year, to the day after the launch of the Russian aggression, “365 days of war in Ukraine” gives a speech opportunity to Ukrainian national speakers: political leaders, public actors, experts...

The event has both a scientific and an artistic dimension, including two exhibitions, and finally a personal aspect, with a staged testimony given by Masha Isakova, a Ukrainian actress living in France. A fundraising session is also being organized.
